

Online Document Hosting

Take advantage of our online, unlimited-user, unlimited-access document management system with no capital outlay.

Join hundreds of satisfied users all over the world deploying state-of-the-art document management techniques using just a web-browser. Coupled with our high volume scanning services we can take your documents and make them available within hours for all your users, no matter when or where they need them.

Powerful Search Tools:

Search using multiple index criteria, full-text searches, boolean and fuzzy search techniques. Millions of pages can be interrogated at once to put the information you need directly at your fingertips.

Time Saving Features:

Once you've found your information, view, zoom and navigate it with ease, then print, fax, annotate, email or download it directly from the server.

Security and Functionality:

Keep information secure with 128 Bit SSL Encryption, unique caching technology, password protection and multiple firewalls. Structure data using user/group access, document level security and even black out areas of individual documents.

No Capital Outlay - Just pay for what you use:

Why spend thousands and thousands on a document management system that may not be fully utilised. With typically no setup or installation charges and no initial outlay, you can be up and running from as little as £60.00 per month. As your usage grows, volume discounting keeps costs under control.
